About

Red Dot Cinema brings independent short films from Asia to the world by distributing films to independent event organizers around the world, holding screening events across different cities. We empower organizers in putting up cool and fun screening events in the most creative spaces.

There are many independent film festivals in the world but there is definitely a lack of Asian films in these festivals. Through Red Dot Cinema, we would like to raise awareness of Asian independent films and promote Asian cultures.

From Asia to the World!

"Listen to our stories, Share our values, Discover a truly Asian experience."

From Asia to the world

Together with screening partners around the world, Red Dot Cinema provides a social and physical platform for local film lovers as well as filmmakers, and rediscovers Asia through stories from behind the lens.

Red Dot Cinema aims to be a continuous project with regular film screenings around the world so that these films can reach out to diverse groups of audience, thus raising awareness of Asian culture & sharing its stories.

Calling for Filmmakers

If you are a filmmaker creating films in Asia or on Asian topics, we invite you and your films to be part of Red Dot Cinema.

Screenings

Red Dot Cinema is a quarterly global film festival that unites audiences across the world. Breaking from the exclusivity of traditional film festivals, Red Dot Cinema aims to provide anyone, anywhere with access to the best Asian films out there.

Live events take place every quarter in a growing international network of locations, showcasing a single programme of Asian short films curated by Red Dot Cinema HQ in Singapore alongside live music, performance, design and much more.

Distribution

Red Dot Cinema distributes your films only to our screening partners across the globe with strict terms & conditions in regards to screening right & copy right issues. Submission of films to Red Dot Cinema is free.

Red Dot Cinema aims to be the leading platform for Asian short films to reach out to a global audience. We hope that you will consider Red Dot Cinema as a key target in your film's festival or distribution strategy.
